Subject: Satellite Office in Silicon Valley

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am an individual inventor located in Palo Alto, California. I am the inventor (and owner) of about 60 issued and pending US and Foreign Patents.

Silicon Valley is the number one locality in the USA in innovation and productivity of US Patents. It would be logical and of great help to inventors like myself to have a new satellite USPTO office in Santa Clara County, California.

Sincerely yours,

Uri Cohen, Ph.D.
